

Larry Horne has received standout reviews for his book, "Besotted: My Love Affair with Wine"

Motivated by his passion for all things wine, Larry has written a rich and colourful memoir that documents his exploits as a wine collector, winemaker, grape grower and – in his second career – sales manager for Calamus Estate Winery

Wine has been the basis for Horne's many international travels with his wife and drinking partner, Alice Bannon. They have travelled to five continents in search of the ultimate wine-tasting experience, and these adventures figure prominently in his memoir.

Larry's lighthearted and easy writing style reels you in and keeps you engaged. His love for wine shines through this story of how his life inspired from drinking wine and being a garagiste winemaker with his brother to being part-owner of a winery – and it is a fascinating trail. –M. Horne takes readers on a whirlwind journey to some of the world's best wine-making, wine club gatherings, blind tastings, and accounts of a fledgling Niagara wine industry, the book is an easy read – just 96 pages - and is, as well, laid back as the author himself. –
